COTES DU RHONE LES 3 GRAINS, DOMAINE NICOLAS CROZE 2019

I have drunk wine from this domaine for at least 15 years, and not only they are very consistent, they also make easy drinking full of flavour wines, so that one is our house pouring, no fuss, no thinking, never disappointed.

CHATEAU VAL JOANIS "LES GRIOTTES" 2017

I always been a great fan of this domaine and this is their top red wine, so full of sun, smooth and so drinkable...I was lucky enough to visit Auguy my eldest son near nice last year and got the domaine to ship 60 bottles to their place just in case we got thirsty...

CHATEAU LA VOULTE-GASPARETS, CORBIERES 2018

I first came across around 10 years ago, while on a amazing trip on the canal du midi across the Corbieres, probably one of the best Corbieres made. Another smooth and fruity delicious wine.

SEMELE CRIANZA, MONTEBACO, RIBERA DEL DUERO 2017

It's not all about the French (ish...), this has to be by far my favourite Spanish red wine, I have become a little more knowledgeable on Spanish wines since marrying my gorgeous Karmen from San Sebastian, so we have try many but we always come back to our first love of Ribera Del Duero, so complex, interesting and rich in flavour.

CHASSAGNE-MONTRACHET VIEILLES VIGNES 2015, DOMAINE JM PILLOT

But I'm always coming back to my real love, burgundy reds, I have known Jean-Marc for well above 20 years and I had the chance to visit his domaine many times, and I love the characters of his wines, Although he mainly produces wonderful white, his Chassagne red is so good, rounded, well balance and so Rich and with a long finish.

GEVREY-CHAMBERTIN CUVÉE OSTREA 2015, DOMAINE JL TRAPET

This has to be not only one of best wine grower in burgundy, but this has to be the best value in his range, This is serious red burgundy, this has elegance in abundance, silky tannins, black and red fruits galore... Difficult to do any better than that...love it....
